

Hello Everyone,

I know I have not written much as of late, but I have been keeping myself busy with my AIR Qualification stuff. I did receive my Surface Warfare pin the other day and I will make sure to forward those pictures on to all of you when I receive them in my inbox. As far as life goes, everything is going pretty well. I have been hitting the gym more lately and getting myself toned and in shape, Working on some things for when I return back home, Working on keeping all of my “special things”, i.e. Coins, patches, Awards, ect, from being damaged too much from sitting down in my rack. I don't have as many things to take photos of anymore, but we are going to have Beer day sometime soon which is always a morale booster. So I wish that I had much more to write.

To those of you who write me often: Thank you for all of your kind words and your moral support. It is nice to hear from everyone and be able to keep up to date with the happenings of everyones lives.

To those of you who do not write me often: Thank you still for the time you have taken and the support that you give. I do hope that in the next few weeks or months we might be able to talk a little bit more.

To everyone, I wish you the best and you are in my thoughts!
