This is an e-mail sent out ship wide concerning ESWS. I figured that you might enjoy it. It is a little humorous.

All Ops Dept Sailors,

You received an e-mail from ETCM Ford stating that you needed to provide proof that you are a Trusty Shellback to your Dept LCPO. Place your printed proof in the top left box labeled "TRUSTY" above my desk in the Ops office. My desk says "OPS LCPO" above it. Don't send me an e-mail with an explanation – just print or copy your card, certificate, letter, etc and place in the box. You need to turn that in prior to the arrival of the Ruler of the Raging Main, King Neptune, and his Royal Assistant Davey Jones, who will convene their royal court onboard and preside over the Ancient Order of the Deep ceremony. Thank you.

V/R,
