Hey Everyone!!!

How are things going in your life? Same old same old here except that I participated in BINGO night last Sat and tonight and so far I have won $50 both nights. Not too shabby if you ask me! As far as everything else goes, I am completely over my illness now and begin working out tomorrow morning at about 4am. Not looking forward to it, but going to get into a routine to where I work out 3-4 days a week. Who knows, maybe by the time I get back I'll be a halfway decent looking guy :P LMAO.

Due to hit a port sometime soon and that will be nice to get a bit of time off of the ship. Looking forward to a little rest and relaxation, that's for sure. As far as my plans go for when I get back, looking at a Vegas trip with my roommate and possibly buying myself a new motorcycle. Always wanted one, but never got around to getting one since I have been here and there the past few years. Might get a tattoo as well, but still thinking about that one. Anyway...that's pretty much about it. About to go hop in the shower, get to sleep, wake up at 4am, go to work, and then have an Underway Replenishment for a few hours...Those are always fun...lol...NOT! Well I wish you the best and I hope you write back. By the way, I will send more pictures soon, just haven't had the time to get around to it lately....Miss talking to you all!

Respectfully,

Jeffrey
